

THE AMERICAN INDIAN WORKSHOP

(affiliated with the European Association for American Studies)

fourth international meeting

Florence - March 3-5, 1983

"Political Structures and Political Representation"

Tentative Program

November 6

Dr. Wilcomb Washburn (Smithsonian Institution)

"The Indian Reorganization Act: a History"

Veronica Tiller (Jicarilla Apache, Tiller Research Corp.)

"Government and Sovereignty in the Jicarilla Apache Reservation"

Dr. David Warren (Santa Clara Pueblo, Director of the Cultural Studies Center,
B.I.A., Santa Fe)

"Federal Policy and the Idea of Representation"

Russel Barsh (University of Washington)

"Individual Freedom and Responsibility in Traditional Political Structures"

Robert Lewis (Governor, Zuni Pueblo)

"Community Development and Traditional Political Structures"

Ned Anderson (Tribal Chair, White Mountain Apache Tribe, San Carlos)

"Economic Development and Traditional Political Structures"

Jim Henderson (Chickasaw-Cheyenne)

"The Role of Medicine Societies in Tribal Traditional Government"

Paul Williams (Anishinabek, Union of Ontario Indians, Toronto)

"Traditional Intertribal Relations and International Law"

Sam Deloria (Director, Indian Law Center, Albuquerque)

"The Indian Advocate: Intermediary Between Tribes and the Federal Government"

Armstrong Wiggins (Misquito, Nicaragua; Indian Law Resource Center, Washington, D.C.)

"Socialist Ideology and Policies Confront American Indian Culture"

Tim Coulden (Indian Law Resource Center, Washington, D.C.)

"Indian Self-determination: the Decolonization 'unfinished business'"

Dr. Jeanne Guillemin (Anthropology Dept., Boston College)

"The Problem of Indian Tribes' Identity and Sovereignty: the Case of the Town of Mashpee"

Program Chair: Elise Marienstras
29 rue de la Rochefoucauld
75009 Paris

Local Arrangements:
Sister Mary Ewens
Rosary Graduate School
Via Boccaccio 123
Firenze 50133
(55) 576-195 or 576-297

8.130.18.47