

8TH AMERICAN INDIAN WORKSHOP, 23-26 APRIL 1987, ECHTERNACH(LUXEMBOURG)

FINAL PROGRAM (MORE OR LESS)

Thursday, 23 April 1987

12 p.m. to 5 p.m. Registration at the Lycée Classique in the old abbey.

3 p.m. Opening session in "Hall of Mirrors" (Salle des glaces) of the Lycée Classique.

Business Meeting of the American Indian Workshop

Preliminary agenda:

1. Report on publications: European Review, Indians and Europe
2. Preview of 9th American Indian Workshop in Berlin(West) 1988
3. International Congress of Americanists Amsterdam, July 1988
4. 10th American Indian Workshop 1989: Decision about place and themes
5. The D'Arcy McNickle Center at the Newberry Library, Chicago, and European research on North American Indians

5 p.m. Reception by the Mayor of Echternach at the City Hall (Denzelt) on market square.

6:30 p.m. Film session at Lycée Classique

The Echternach Dancing Procession - a bit of local folklore you will be missing otherwise

Neshnabek: The People - footage filmed among Kansas Potawatomi in 1930-1941, edited by Donald Stull in late 1970's

8 p.m. Workshop Dinner: Place to be announced at Registration, participants pay their own way

Friday, 24 April 1987

9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. "Indians and Inuit: Restrictions on the Use of Natural Resources, Subsistence and Economic Development I"

Finn LYNGE (Inuit Circumpolar Conference, Copenhagen/Greenland), Animal protection movements and the aboriginal life style

Govert de GROOT (Werkgroep Inhemse Volken, Amsterdam), Protection of nature and the environment - pro and contra Indians and Inuit

Coffee break

10:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. "Indians and Inuit ... II"

Franca PETRI (U. of Pisa), Resettlement in Nouveau Québec
Anna SECCO (U. of Venice) and Franco MELI (U. of Milano),
Indian perspective versus non-Indian exploitation:
A reading of Leslie M. Silko's Storyteller

Lunch break

REGISTRATION FEE: US$10.00 (US$5.00 for students)

LOCAL ORGANIZATION: Carlo J. Krieger, L-6689 Merttert, Tel.75314

- 2 p.m. Additional Papers accepted after Preliminary Program was sent out
Sonja SCHIERLE (Stuttgart), Educational Experiences of Indian Students in the Public School System - The Example of Tucson, Arizona
Jean-Loup ROUSSELOT (Museum für Völkerkunde, München), The Mackenzie Eskimo, or The Overlooked River Eskimo
Bente HANSEN (Elsinore), The Many Faces of Wildlife Management - A Brief Analysis of How Different Views of Nature Influence Wildlife Management Systems

4 p.m. to 6 p.m. "Indians and Inuit ... III"

- Mads FAEGTEBORG (Inuit Circumpolar Conference, Copenhagen), Inuit regional conservation strategy
Jørn BERGLUND (Institute for Eskimology, Copenhagen); Inupiat whaling and the oil companies
Ole HERTZ (Bornholm), Inuit hunters and the super tankers

For the evening there are only tentative plans.

Saturday, 25 April 1987

9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. "Current Research I"

- Peter HOLZ (Museum für Völkerkunde, Berlin), The Omaha Collection of Francis La Flesche: The history of the only collection in the Ethnographic Museum in Berlin collected by a Native American
Aribert SCHROEDER (U. of Düsseldorf), Native Americans in Contemporary Black Literature
Inese ANDERSEN (IWGIA, Copenhagen), Western Medicine Updated by Native American Women

Coffee break

10:45 to 12:30 a.m. "Current Research II"

- Franz L. WOJCIECHOWSKI (Nijmegen), Research of Native Americans of Eastern North America, esp. in Connecticut
Carlo J. KRIEGER (Fauersmillen and Vienna), Applied Missionary Ethnology in the Maritimes
Frederick HOXIE (Newberry Library, Chicago), The Problems of (American) Indian History

1:30 p.m. WORKSHOP EXCURSION: Participants leave by bus for Luxembourg city - which may be explored individually or in groups

4:30 p.m. Visit of exhibition "Christian Kauder, a Luxembourg missionary among the Micmac, 1856-1871" at the National Library, next to the main entrance of the cathedral (Boulevard Roosevelt)

5:30 p.m. bus leaves for Vianden

7:30 p.m. Dinner in the castle of Vianden by invitation of the Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, Minister of Cultural Affairs, Monsieur Robert Krieps

10:15 p.m. bus leaves Vianden for Echternach, arrives Echternach c. 11:15 p.m.

Sunday, 26 April 1987

Possibility for final Workshop brunch. Participants leave Echternach